GSS At-Large Senator Candidate Application Form

We invite you to submit your candidacy for at-large senator! Please complete this form if you wish to be considered as a candidate for at-large senator for the 2014-2015 academic year.

Candidacy for GSS at-large senators is open to all University of Connecticut graduate students who pay the Graduate Student Activity Fee, including: Storrs-based graduate students; 5th year Neag students; Doctor in Physical Therapy students; Masters in Public Policy students at the Hartford campus; and Marine Science graduate students at the Avery Point campus.

CANDIDATE INFORMATION

Candidate Name: __________________________________________________________________________

Degree Program: __________________________________________ Year in Program: ____________

Campus: __________________________ Email Address: _________________________________

CANDIDATE PERSONAL STATEMENT (MAX: 175 WORDS)

The personal statement will appear on the Joint Elections website and in elections publicity materials. Briefly describe who you are and why you wish to be serve as a GSS at-large senator.

_______________________________________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________________________________

Please attach a photo for use on the election website (if desired).

Candidates must submit one application form to each of the following individuals, either in person or by email, in order to receive full consideration:

(1) Mary Shaw (mary.shaw@uconn.edu), Student Union, Room 308
(2) Ian Gutierrez (ian.gutierrez@uconn.edu), Student Union, GSS Office, Room 213

Both copies must be submitted no later than noon on February 21st, 2014. Please direct all questions regarding this form to GSS Parliamentarian, Ian Gutierrez, at ian.gutierrez@uconn.edu